War is a Scam

- All wars are a giant commercial transaction = bankster wars
- Watch the All Commerce is Warfare & All Warfare Is Commerce video
- ISIS is a creation of the CIA
- The War on Terror is a War on You (watch my video!)
- False Flag operations are everywhere
War is a Scam

- WWIII is being orchestrated as part of the orchestrated sub-prime crisis (watch Bankster Thieves 1, 2, & 3)
- All wars are a satanic blood sacrifice
- All Birth Certificates create an Estate under the Hague Convention Concerning the International Administration of Deceased Persons, and then upon the death of somebody in a war, the government seizes the account and uses it to pay the national debt under International law
There is no law that says that anybody has to Register for Selective Service

PIG is an acronym = Persons In Government who intends to perjure their oath

There will be no law that says that anybody has to be drafted

This procedure takes away their plausible deniability

If you do NOT assert your rights, you lose them!

If you do NOT want to participate, you do NOT have to leave the country!
The Selective Service is for US Citizens or registered aliens

The Draft will ONLY be for US citizens or registered aliens

If you want to know what a US citizen is, watch my video “Citizenship - Do you Know who you are?”

If you are forced to register because of a driver’s license, or student loan, there are still alternatives

If a foreign enemy ever comes to our shores, I will be the first in line for enlistment, but we have no duty to go to a foreign country to participate in a satanic blood sacrifice
If you want to join the military and want to go to war, then knock yourself out.

I wish you the best of luck.

Good luck with that!

This video is directed at those who are getting railroaded into it and do NOT want to participate

PTSD is NOT necessary

Getting your hands, arms or legs amputated is NOT necessary

People that join the military “volunteered”

Need More Information?

Selective Service System has two booklets available for additional information. The "Information for Registrants" booklet explains the induction, claims, and appeals process that would be in effect if inductions were authorized in the future. The "Selective Service and You" booklet provides information about Selective Service and your registration responsibilities. These publications are available on the SSS website (www.sss.gov).

Privacy Act Statement

The Military Selective Service Act, Selective Service regulations, and the President's Proclamation on Registration require that you provide the indicated information, including your Social Security Account Number. The principal purpose of the required information is to establish or verify your registration with the Selective Service System. This information may be furnished to other government agencies for the stated purposes on a selective basis.

- Bureau of Census – for the purposes of planning or carrying out a census or survey or related activity pursuant to the provisions of Title 13.
- Department of Justice – for review and processing of suspected violations of the Military Selective Service Act, for perjury, and for defense of a civil action arising from administrative processing under such Act.
- Department of State & U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Service – for collection and evaluation of data to determine a person's eligibility for entry/re-entry into the United States and for U.S. Citizenship.
- Department of Defense & Coast Guard – to exchange data concerning registration, classification, induction, and examination of registrants and for identification of prospects for recruiting.
- Department of Labor – to assist veterans in need of data concerning re-employment rights, and determining eligibility for benefits under the Workforce Investment Act.
- Department of Education – to determine eligibility for student financial assistance.
- Department of Health and Human Services – to determine a person's proper Social Security Account Number and for locating parents pursuant to the Child Support Enforcement Act.
- State and Local Governments – to provide data which may constitute evidence and facilitate the enforcement of state or local law.
- Alternative Service Employers – to exchange information with employers regarding a registrant who is a conscientious objector for the purpose of placement and supervision of performance of alternative service in lieu of induction into military service.
- General Public – Registrant's name, Selective Service Number, Date of Birth and Classification. (Military Selective Service Act, Section 6, 50 U.S.C. App. 456h).

Failure to provide the required information may violate the Military Selective Service Act. Conviction for such a violation may result in imprisonment for up to five years and/or a fine of not more than $250,000.
MEN AGE 18 THROUGH 25 must register with the Selective Service System

Know the Facts

What is Selective Service Registration?
Registration is the process by which the U.S. government collects names and addresses of men age 18 through 25 to use in case a national emergency requires rapid expansion of the Armed Forces. Men should register within 30 days of their 18th birthday. Men who are 26 years old and older are too old to register.

Will I Be Drafted?
Registering with Selective Service does not mean you are joining the military. (See the chart for "Who Must Register")
The fact that a man is required to register does not mean that he will be drafted. No one has been drafted since 1973. No one can be drafted into the military unless ordered by Congress and the President. A draft would most likely occur only in the event of war or national emergency.

What Happens If I Don't Register?
Not registering is a felony. Young men convicted of failure to register may be fined up to $250,000, imprisoned for up to five years, or both. In addition to being subject to prosecution, failure to register may cause you to permanently forfeit eligibility for certain benefits.

What Are The Benefits?
Federal and many state laws require registration-age men to be registered with Selective Service to remain eligible for applying for the following benefits: student financial aid, government employment, employment with the U.S. Postal Service, job training, and U.S. citizenship for male immigrants.

How You Register

Save a Stamp, Save Time, Register On-Line
A quicker way to register is online through the Internet at our web site (www.sss.gov). If you cannot register on-line, then follow the instructions listed below and fill out and mail the attached card.

Complete the Registration Card to the right, printing your information in BLACK INK and CAPITAL LETTERS ONLY.

Block 1: Print your date of birth. Use a two-number designation for the month and day and use a four-number designation for the year.
Block 2: Place an "X" in the correct box.
Block 3: If you have a Social Security Account Number, it is mandatory that you include this information. If you don't have one, leave this block blank.
Block 4: Print your full legal name as outlined on the card. Include any suffix (such as Jr., or II), in the designated box, if applicable.
Block 5: Print your current mailing address as outlined on the card. Use the two-letter State abbreviation and enter your ZIP Code.
Block 6: Enter today's date. Use a two-number designation for the month and day and use a four-number designation for the year.
Block 7: Sign your name in this box.
Then, tear off card, add postage, and mail.

If you're concerned about privacy of personal data, you may mail this card to Selective Service in an envelope. Please apply proper first class postage.

Who Must Register
With few exceptions, all male U.S. citizens and male immigrant aliens residing in the U.S. and its territories must register if they are 18 through 25. Refer to the chart below for specifics.

 Residents of Puerto Rico, Guam, Virgin Islands, and Northern Marianas Islands are U.S. citizens. Citizens of American Samoa are nationals and must register when they are habitual residents in the United States. Habitual residence is presumed whenever a national or a citizen of the Republic of the Marshall Islands or the Federated States of Micronesia resides in the United States for more than one year in any six years, except as a student or employee of the government of his homeland.

NOTE: Immigrants who did not enter the United States or maintained their lawful non-immigrant status by continually remaining on a valid visa until after they were 26 years old were never required to register. Also, immigrants born before 1980 who did not enter the United States or maintained their lawful non-immigrant status by continually remaining on a valid visa until after March 29, 1995 were never required to register.

After You Register...

Watch Your Mail!
Within 90 days after registering, you should receive in the mail a Registration Acknowledgment Card from Selective Service which will provide you with a copy of your registration record. Safeguard that document since it will serve as official proof of your registration. If you do not receive a Registration Acknowledgment Card within 90 days after registering, it is very important that you verify that your registration has been received. Verify or check your registration on-line (http://www.sss.gov), call 1-888-655-1825, or write to Selective Service System, Registration Information Office, PO Box 94638, Palatine, IL 60094-4638.

Keep Us Informed of Changes
Once you register, the law also requires you to keep Selective Service informed of your address changes within 10 days so you can be reached without delay. You can inform Selective Service of an address change by going to www.sss.gov, writing to the address above, or you may go to any post office for a Change-of-Information Form (SSS Form 2), fill it out and mail to Selective Service.

You Must Register With Selective Service

What is Selective Service Registration?
Registration is the process by which the U.S. Government collects names and addresses of men age 18 through 25 to use in case of a national emergency, determined by Congress and the President, which would require rapid expansion of the Armed Forces. Men are required to register within 30 days of their 18th birthday. Once men reach their 25th birthday, they can no longer register, as stated in the Military Selective Service Act.

What Happens If I Don't Register?
Not registering is a felony. Young men prosecuted and convicted of failure to register may be fined up to $250,000, imprisoned for up to five years, or both. Failure to register also may cause men to permanently lose eligibility for student financial aid, government employment, job training, and U.S. citizenship for male immigrants.

Who Must Register?
Male U.S. citizens and immigrants, documented and undocumented, residing in the U.S. and its territories must register if they are age 18 through 25.

How Do I Register? Please print all the requested information — including your Social Security Account Number if you have one — sign your name, peel the seal strips off, seal the card, put a stamp on the front, and mail the sealed card. Or, register online at www.sss.gov.

Fill Out This Card

What About After I Register?
You should receive a Selective Service Acknowledgment with your Selective Service Number. Keep your acknowledgment in a safe place for future reference. You can also verify your Selective Service Number by going to www.sss.gov to “Check a Registration.” If you move, you are required by Federal law to provide address changes to Selective Service, which can be done at www.sss.gov to “Report a Change of Address Online,” or by filling out and mailing a SSS Form 2 (Change of Information) at the post office.

Dear MR:

We cannot give you a Social Security card because:

MR IS NOT RECEIVING FEDERAL AID OR GOVERNMENT ASSISTANCE OF ANY KIND. THEREFORE, HE IS NOT REQUIRED TO HAVE A SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER.

If You Disagree

If you think you should get a Social Security number or card based on what you have given us, you can ask us to review your case. Someone who did not look at your first application will review it.

Please call, write or visit any Social Security office to ask for a review.

“Include 1. To confine within; to hold; to contain; as, the shell of a nut includes the kernel; a pearl is included in a shell. [But in these senses we more commonly use inclose.] 2. To comprise; to comprehend; to contain.” American Dictionary of The English Language, Noah Webster, 1828

“Include. (Lat. Inclaudere, to shut in, keep within.) To confine within, hold as in an inclosure, take in, attain, shut up, contain, inclose, comprise, comprehend, embrace, involve. Premier Products Co. v. Cameron, 240 Or. 123, 400 P.2d 227, 228.” Black’s Law Dictionary 6th Edition, page 763
“EJUSDEM GENERIS [Latin “of the same kind or class”] A canon of construction that when a general word or phrase follows a list of specifics, the general word or phrase will be interpreted to include only items of the same type as those listed.
• For example, in the phrase horses, cattle, sheep, pigs, goats, or any other farm animal, the general language or any other farm animal — despite its seeming breadth — would probably be held to include only four-legged, hoofed mammals typically found on farms, and thus would exclude chickens. — Cf. EXPRESSIO UNIUS EST EXCLUSIO ALTERIUS; NOSCITUR A SOCIIS; RULE OF RANK.” Black’s Law Dictionary 8th Edition page 1568
“the words “person” and “whoever” include corporations, companies, associations, firms, partnerships, societies, and joint stock companies, as well as individuals;” 1 USC § 1
“(a) When used in this title, where not otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent thereof —

(1) Person

The term “person” shall be construed to mean and include an individual, a trust, estate, partnership, association, company or corporation.” 26 USC § 7701. Definitions
“By metaphysical refinement in examining the form of our government it might be correctly said that there is no such thing as a citizen of the United States.
A citizen of any one of the States of the Union is held to be and called a citizen of the United States, although technically and abstractly there is no such thing.” Ex Parte Frank Knowles, 5 Cal. Rep. 300, [emphasis added]
"Chap. LXXI. - An Act prescribing the form of the enacting and resolving Clauses of Acts and Resolutions of Congress, and Rules of construction therefore." which was approved on Feb 25, 1871, in Volume 16, Forty-First Congress, Session III, under Sec. 2., at 16 Stat. 431, says;

"And be it further enacted that in all Acts hereinafter passed...; and the word "person" may extend and be applied to bodies politic and corporate...", [emphasis added],

"And while the Fourteenth Amendment does not create a national citizenship, it has the effect of making that citizenship "paramount and dominant" instead of "derivative and dependent" upon state citizenship." Colgate v Harvey 296 US 404 at p 427

"The amendment (fourteeth) reversed and annulled the original policy of the constitution," United States v. Rhodes, 27 Federal Cases, 785, 794.
"There is a clear distinction between national citizenship and state citizenship." 256 P. 545, affirmed 278 US 123, Tashiro vs. Jordan

"The privileges and immunities clause of the 14th Amendment protects very few rights because it neither incorporates the Bill of Rights, nor protects all rights of individual citizens. Instead this provision protects only those rights peculiar to being a citizen of the federal government; it does not protect those rights which relate to state citizenship." Jones v. Temmer, 89 F. Supp 1226
"there is in our Political System, a government of each of the several states and a government of the United States. Each is distinct from the other and has citizens of its own." US vs. Cruikshank, 92 US 542,

“A person who is a citizen of the United States is necessarily a citizen of the particular state in which he resides. But a person may be a citizen of a particular state and not a citizen of the United States. To hold otherwise would be to deny to the state the highest exercise of its sovereignty, -- the right to declare who are its citizens.” State v. Fowler, 41 La. Ann. 380 6 S. 602 (1889), [emphasis added]
"One may be a citizen of a State and yet not a citizen of the United States. Thomasson v State, 15 Ind. 449; Cory v Carter, 48 Ind. 327 (17 Am. R. 738); McCarthy v. Froelke, 63 Ind. 507; In Re Wehlitz, 16 Wis. 443." Mc Donel v State, 90 Ind. Rep. 320 at pg 323;

Both before and after the 14th Amendment to the Federal Constitution it has not been necessary for a person to be a citizen of the U.S. in order to be a citizen of his State; Crosse v. Board of Supervisors, Baltimore, Md., 1966, 221 A. 2d 431 citing US Supreme Court Slaughter House Cases and U.S. v. Cruikshank 92 US 542, 549, 23 L. Ed 588 1875:
There are two classes of citizens, citizens of the United States and of the State. And one may be a citizen of the former without being a citizen of the latter” Gardina v. Board of Registers 48 So. 788, 169 Ala. 155 1909

“The words “people of the United States” and “citizens” are synonymous terms and mean the same thing. They both describe the political body who, according to our republican institutions form the sovereignty, and who hold the power, and conduct the government through their representatives. They are what we familiarly call the sovereign people, and every citizen of one of this people, and a constituent member of the sovereignty.” Dredd Scott v Sandford 60 U.S. 393
"The people or sovereign are not bound by general word in statutes, restrictive of prerogative right, title or interest, unless expressly named. Acts of limitation do not bind the King or the people. The people have been ceded all the rights of the King, the former sovereign,..." People v Herkimer, 4 Cowen (NY) 345, 348 (1825)

"...at the revolution the Sovereignty devolved on the people; and they are truly the sovereigns of the country... the citizens of America are equal as fellow citizens, and as joint tenants in the sovereignty." Chisholm v Georgia, 2 Dall. 440, at pg 471
"People of a state are entitled to all rights, which formerly belong to the King by his prerogative." Lansing v Smith, (1829) 4 Wendell 9,20 (NY).

"It will be admitted on all hands that with the exception of the powers granted to the states and the federal government, through the Constitutions, the people of the several states are unconditionally sovereign within their respective states." Ohio L. Ins. & T. Co. v. Debolt, 16 How. 416, 14 L.Ed. 997
"The state citizen is immune from any and all government attacks and procedure, absent contract." see, Dred Scott vs. Sanford, 60 U.S. (19 How.) 393 or as the Supreme Court has stated clearly, "...every man is independent of all laws, except those prescribed by nature. He is not bound by any institutions formed by his fellowmen without his consent." CRUDEN vs. NEALE, 2 N.C. 338 2 S.E. 70, [emphasis added]

“The rights of the individuals are restricted only to the extent that they have been voluntarily surrendered by the citizenship to the agencies of government.” City of Dallas v Mitchell, 245 S.W. 944
"State citizens are the only ones living under free government, whose rights are incapable of impairment by legislation or judicial decision."
Twining v. New Jersey, 211 U.S. 97, 1908

"State Citizenship is a vested substantial property right, and the State has no power to divest or impair these rights." Favot v. Kingsbury, (1929) 98 Cal. App. 284, 276 P. 1083,

"Taxpayers are not State Citizens."
Belmont v. Town of Gulfport, 122 So. 10.
"The sovereignty of a state does not reside in the persons who fill the different departments of its government, but in the People, from whom the government emanated; and they may change it at their discretion. Sovereignty, then in this country, abides with the constituency, and not with the agent; and this remark is true, both in reference to the federal and state government."

Spooner v. McConnell, 22 F 939 @ 943

“No action can be taken against a sovereign in the non-constitutional courts of either the United States or the state courts & any such action is considered the crime of Barratry. Barratry is an offense at common law.”

State vs. Batson, 17 S.E. 2d 511, 512, 513

"...the privileges and immunities of citizens of the United States do not necessarily include all the rights protected by the first eight amendments to the Federal constitution against the powers of the Federal government."
Maxwell v Dow, 20 S.C.R. 448, at pg 455;

"The only absolute and unqualified right of a United States citizen is to residence within the territorial boundaries of the United States," US vs. Valentine 288 F. Supp. 957
“Citizenship is a political status, and may be defined and privilege limited by Congress.” Ex Parte (NG) Fung Sing, Federal Reporter, 2nd Series, Vol. 6, Page 670 (1925)

"The term resident and citizen of the United States is distinguished from a Citizen of one of the several states, in that the former is a special class of citizen created by Congress." U.S. v. Anthony 24 Fed. 829 (1873)
"We therefore decline to overrule the opinion of Chief Justice Marshall: We hold that the District of Columbia is not a state within Article 3 of the Constitution. In other words cases between citizens of the District and those of the states were not included of the catalogue of controversies over which the Congress could give jurisdiction to the federal courts by virtue of Article 3. In other words Congress has exclusive legislative jurisdiction over citizens of Washington District of Columbia and through their plenary power nationally covers those citizens even when in one of the several states as though the district expands for the purpose of regulating its citizens wherever they go throughout the states in union" National Mutual Insurance Company of the District of Columbia v. Tidewater Transfer Company, 337 U.S. 582, 93 L.Ed. 1556 (1948)

Bottom line – Your citizenship is determined by what YOU tell them, as well as the evidence YOU provide.

I know people who get called for jury duty and tell them that they are NOT a US citizen and they are out of there very fast.

There is a Selective Service bureaucrat in every locality. If you serve him with a Notice and Demand that brings up these issues, I bet that you NEVER get selected.
"There are two ways to conquer and enslave a nation. One is by the sword. The other is by debt." John Adams 1826

The government is bankrupt – see the Bankrupt Corporate Governments video

Almost everywhere is under a military Occupation

See the Texas (and other American States) is Under a Military Occupation video

Seethe Alberta (and other Canadian States) is Under a Military Occupation video
“A place, district, or country occupied by an enemy stands, in consequence of the occupation, under the Martial Law of the invading or occupying army, whether any proclamation declaring Martial Law, or any public warning to the inhabitants, has been issued or not. Martial Law is the immediate and direct effect and consequence of occupation or conquest. The presence of a hostile army proclaims its Martial Law.” Article 1, Lieber Code [emphasis added]
“Martial Law does not cease during the hostile occupation, except by special proclamation, ordered by the commander in chief; or by special mention in the treaty of peace concluding the war, when the occupation of a place or territory continues beyond the conclusion of peace as one of the conditions of the same.” Article 2, Lieber Code [emphasis added]
“Territory is considered occupied when it is actually placed under the authority of the hostile army.

The occupation extends only to the territory where such authority has been established and can be exercised.” Law and Customs of War on Land (Hague IV), Article 42
“The present Convention shall apply from the outset of any conflict or occupation mentioned in Article 2.

In the territory of Parties to the conflict, the application of the present Convention shall cease on the general close of military operations.

In the case of occupied territory, the application of the present Convention shall cease one year after the general close of military operations; however, the Occupying Power shall be bound, for the duration of the occupation, to the extent that such Power exercises the functions of government in such territory, by the provisions of the following Articles of the present Convention: 1 to 12, 27, 29 to 34, 47, 49, 51, 52, 53, 59, 61 to 77, 143.” Article 6, Geneva Convention Relative to the Protection of Civilians in Time of War of 1949 [emphasis added]
“The Occupying Power may not compel protected persons to serve in its armed or auxiliary forces. No pressure or propaganda which aims at securing voluntary enlistment is permitted.....” Article 51, Geneva Convention Relative to the Protection of Civilians in Time of War of 1949 [emphasis added]

This is why the Selective Service registration form describes people in the District of Columbia and the territories.
“No contract, agreement or regulation shall impair the right of any worker, whether voluntary or not and wherever he may be, to apply to the representatives of the Protecting Power in order to request the said Power’s intervention.

All measures aiming at creating unemployment or at restricting the opportunities offered to workers in an occupied territory, in order to induce them to work for the Occupying Power, are prohibited.” Article 52, Geneva Convention Relative to the Protection of Civilians in Time of War of 1949 [emphasis added]
What to do?

- Serve a Registered Letter on whoever is the head of the agency that is registering for the local Selective Service or the Draft

- Use the citations in this presentation and explain that you are under a military occupation and they have no right to compel you to go into the military, and how it is a violation Article 51 of the Geneva Convention Relative to the Treatment of Civilians in a Time of War of 1949

- If you can’t find work, or do NOT want to produce a Social Security Number, you can use the same argument
If you are in a Selected group

- All is NOT lost
- A friend named Bill was in ROTC during Vietnam war
