- ▣ Natural Law = Law of the Land
- ▣ If we “voluntarily” give up our god given rights, in exchange for satanic privileges – it is an offense against God

Natural Law = Christian Government

- ▣ “When in the Course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume, among the Powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.
- ▣ We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness.” Declaration of Independence (1776)

Natural Law = Christian Government

- ❖ “This law of nature, being coeval with mankind and dictated by God himself, is of course superior in obligation to any other. It is binding over all the globe in all countries, and at all times: no human laws are of any validity, if contrary to this; and such of them as are valid derive all their force, and all their authority, mediately or immediately, from this original.” Blackstone’s Commentaries on the Laws of England (1765-1769), Section 2, page 41

Natural Law = Christian Government

- ▣ “This has given manifold occasion for the benign interposition of divine Providence, which, in compassion to the frailty, the imperfection, and the blindness of human reason, hath been pleased, at sundry times and in divers manners, to discover and enforce its laws by an immediate and direct revelation.
- ▣ The doctrines thus delivered we call the revealed or divine law, and they are to be found only in the holy scriptures. These precepts, when revealed, are found upon comparison to be really a part of the original law of nature, as they tend in all their consequences to man's felicity.” Blackstone’s Commentaries on the Laws of England, (1765-1769) Section 2, Page 41

Natural Law = Christian Government

- ▣ “Upon these two foundations, the law of nature and the law of revelation, depend all human laws; that is to say, no human laws should be suffered to contradict these.” Blackstone’s Commentaries on the Law of England, (1765-1769) Sect 2, Page 42

Natural Law = Christian Government

- ▣ “Our Constitution was made only for a moral and religious people. It is wholly inadequate to the government of any other.” John Adams

Natural Law = Christian Government

- ❖ “All acts of the legislature apparently contrary to natural rights and justice are, in our law and must be in the nature of things, considered as void. The laws of nature are the laws of God, whose authority can be superseded by no power on earth. A legislature must not obstruct our obedience to him from whose punishments they cannot protect us. All human constitutions which contradict his (God's) laws, we are in conscience bound to disobey.” 1772, Robin v. Hardaway, 1 Jefferson 109.

Natural Law = Christian Government

- ❖ "Every citizen & freeman is endowed with certain rights & privileges to enjoy which no written law or statute is required. These are the fundamental or natural rights, recognized among all free people." U.S. v. Morris, 125 F 322, 325.

Natural Law = Christian Government

- ❖ "As general rule men have natural right to do anything which their inclinations may suggest, if it be not evil in itself, and in no way impairs the rights of others." In Re Newman (1858), 9 C. 502

Natural Law = Christian Government

- ▣ "When you become entitled to exercise the right of voting for public officers, Let it be impressed on your mind that God commands you to choose for rulers, 'just men who will rule in the fear of God.' The preservation of [our] Government depends on the faithful discharge of this Duty; if the citizens Neglect their Duty and place unprincipled men in office, the government will Soon be corrupted; laws will be made, not for the public good so much as for Selfish or local purposes; corrupt or incompetent men will be appointed to Execute the Laws; the public revenues will be squandered on unworthy men; and The rights of the citizen will be violated or disregarded. If [our] government Fails to secure public prosperity and happiness, it must be because the Citizens neglect the Divine Commands, and elect bad men to make and administer The Laws." -- Noah Webster (1758-1843) American patriot and scholar, author of the first dictionary of American English usage (1806) and the author of the 1828 edition of the dictionary that bears his name.

Natural Law = Law of the Land

"...the individual may stand upon his constitutional rights as a Citizen. He is entitled to carry on his private business in his own way. His power to contract is unlimited. He owes no duty to the state or to his neighbors to divulge his business, or to open his doors to an investigation, so far as it may tend to incriminate him. He owes no such duty to the state, since he receives nothing therefrom, beyond the protection of his life, liberty, and property. His rights are such as existed by the law of the land long antecedent to the organization of the state, and can only be taken from him by due process of law, and in accordance with the Constitution. Among his rights are a refusal to incriminate himself, and the immunity of himself and his property from arrest or seizure except under (a judicial power warrant) a warrant of the law. He owes nothing to the public so long as he does not trespass upon their rights." Hale v. Henkel, 201 U.S. 43
