Excited Domestic Insurrections

The tyrant, who in order to hold his power, suppresses every superiority, does away with good men, forbids education and light, controls every movement of the citizens and, keeping them under a perpetual servitude, wants them to grow accustomed to baseness and cowardice, has his spies everywhere to listen to what is said in the meetings, and spreads dissension and calumny among the citizens and impoverishes them, is obliged to make war in order to keep his subjects occupied and impose on them permanent need of a chief.

Bankruptcy = Martial Law

- ▣ "Since March 9, 1933; the United States has been in a state of declared National Emergency . . . A majority of the people of the United States have lived all of their lives under emergency rule. For 40 years, freedoms and governmental procedures guaranteed by the Constitution have in varying degrees been abridged by laws brought into force by states of national emergency . . ." Military Dictatorship

- “Martial Law in a hostile country consists in the suspension, by the occupying military authority, of the criminal and civil law, and of the domestic administration and government in the occupied place or territory, and in the substitution of military rule and force for the same, as well as in the dictation of general laws, as far as military necessity requires this suspension, substitution, or dictation.
- The commander of the forces may proclaim that the administration of all civil and penal law shall continue either wholly or in part, as in times of peace, unless otherwise ordered by the military authority.” Article 3, Lieber Code

Military Dictatorship

- “Military necessity, as understood by modern civilized nations, consists in the necessity of those measures which are indispensable for securing the ends of the war, and which are lawful according to the modern law and usages of war.” Article 14, Lieber Code
- “Military necessity does not admit of cruelty - that is, the infliction of suffering for the sake of suffering or for revenge, nor of maiming or wounding except in fight, nor of torture to extort confessions. It does not admit of the use of poison in any way, nor of the wanton devastation of a district. It admits of deception, but disclaims acts of perfidy; and, in general, military necessity does not include any act of hostility which makes the return to peace unnecessarily difficult.” Article 16, Lieber Code

Lieber Code Article 7

- ▣ “Martial Law extends to property, and to persons, whether they are subjects of the enemy or aliens to that government.” Article 7 Lieber code
- ▣ Subjects or Aliens – nobody else
- ▣ Does NOT affect sovereignty
- ▣ Why would anyone want to be a lowlife scumbag US citizen
- ▣ If a military police officer is talking to you, then you are a subject and you are the enemy

Lieber Code Article 7

“All subjects over which the sovereign power of the state extends are objects of taxation, but those over which it does not extend are exempt from taxation. This proposition may also be pronounced as self-evident. The sovereignty of the state extends to everything which exists by its authority or its permission.” McCullough v Maryland, 17 U.S. [4 Wheat] 316 (1819). [emphasis added]

Subject = Slave = Enemy

"The term resident and citizen of the United States is distinguished from a Citizen of one of the several states, in that the former is a special class of citizen created by Congress." U.S. v. Anthony 24 Fed. 829 (1873)

"[T]he term "citizen," in the United States, is analogous to the term "subject" in the common law." State vs Manual 20 NC 122, 14 C.J.S. 4, p 430

"Civil rights under the 14th amendment are for Federal citizens and not State Citizens; Federal citizens, as parents, have no right to the custody of their infant children except subject to the paramount right of the State." Wadleigh v. Newhall, Circuit Court N. Dist. Cal., Mar 13, 1905

Subject = Slave = Enemy

“...it is evident that they [U.S. citizens] have not the political rights which are vested in citizens of the States. They are not constituents of any community in which is vested any sovereign power of government. Their position partakes more of the character of subjects than of citizens. They are subject to the laws of the United States, but have no voice in its management. If they are allowed to make laws, the validity of these laws is derived from the sanction of a Government in which they are not represented. Mere citizenship they may have, but the political rights of citizens they cannot enjoy...”

Article 10 Lieber Code

Lieber Code Article 13

- ▣ “Military jurisdiction is of two kinds: First, that which is conferred and defined by statute; second, that which is derived from the common law of war. Military offenses under the statute law must be tried in the manner therein directed; but military offenses which do not come within the statute must be tried and punished under the common law of war. The character of the courts which exercise these jurisdictions depends upon the local laws of each particular country. In the armies of the United States the first is exercised by courts-martial, while cases which do not come within the "Rules and Articles of War," or the jurisdiction conferred by statute on courts-martial, are tried by military commissions.” Article 13, Lieber Code

Lieber Code Article 13

- ▣ All statutes are in support of the Martial Law
- ▣ All statutes apply to subjects ONLY
- ▣ There are 2 kinds of court proceedings,
Courts Martial and Military Commissions

Lieber Code Article 13

JUDGE
WORKS FOR THE STATE

PROSECUTOR
WORKS FOR THE STATE

POLICE/WITNESS
WORKS FOR THE STATE

The vast majority of the disputes that the police initiate on behalf of their employer are also adjudicated by their employer, where the plaintiff, the judge, the antagonist (the police) and the only witness (also the police), all represent the same party, and, since no corpus delicti, mens rea or acts reus can be produced, doesn't technically qualify to be heard according to its own "laws".
The State therefore is indistinguishable from a criminal cartel.

United States 487 U.S. 99 (1988) quoting, United States v. White 322 U.S. 694 (1944)

US Citizen = Roman Law = Roman Cult

- ▣ “Yet still it was found difficult to set bounds to ecclesiastical ingenuity; for when they were driven out of all their former holds, they devised a new method of conveyance, by which the lands were granted, not to themselves directly, but to nominal feoffees to the use of the religious houses; thus distinguishing between the possession and the use, and receiving the actual profits, while the seisin of the lands remained in the nominal feoffee, who was held by the courts of equity (then under the direction of the clergy) to be bound in conscience to account to his cestui que use for the rents and emoluments [taxes] of the estate: and it is to these inventions that our practitioners are indebted for the introduction of uses and trusts, the foundation of modern conveyancing.” Tomlins Law Dictionary 1835 edition, Volume 2 under the definition of Mortmain [emphasis added]

Quasi-Contracts = Commerce

“Assumpsit - ...In its origin an action of tort, [assumpsit] was soon transformed into an action of contract, becoming afterwards a remedy where there was neither tort nor contract. Based at first only upon an express promise, it was afterwards supported upon an implied promise, and even upon a fictitious promise. Introduced as a special manifestation of the action on the case, it soon acquired the dignity of a distinct form of action, which superseded Debt, became concurrent with Account, with Case upon a bailment, a warranty, and bills of exchange, and competed with Equity in the case of the essentially equitable quasi-contracts growing out of the principle of unjust enrichment.” James Barr Ames, “The History of Assumpsit,” in 3 Select Essays in Anglo-American Legal History 298 (1909).” Black’s Law Dictionary, 8th Edition, page 379 [emphasis added]

Quasi Contracts

- ▣ "Both in Roman and English law there are certain obligations which were not in truth contractual, but which the law treats as IF they were. They are contractual in law, but not in fact, being the subject-matter of a fictitious extension of the sphere of contract to cover obligations which do not in reality fall within it." Salmond, Salmond on Jurisprudence, p. 642 (9th Edition, 1937, Sweet & Maxwell, Ltd. England). [emphasis added]

(bought and paid for) Clerk masquerading as a Judge = War Crimes

If the “Judge” denies your challenge to jurisdiction without making the prosecutor prove jurisdiction, then it is a war crime in violation of Article 71 of the Geneva Convention Relative to the Protection of Civilians in a Time of War of 1949

He is NOT neutral or unbiased – I would say “so we are doing war crimes here are we?”

Either they have jurisdiction and can prove it, or the Judge MUST dismiss the case

- ▣ It is extremely important to them that people do not figure this out because the last time they were doing War crimes, it precipitated a revolution

Sovereign Citizen Quick Reference

Sovereign Citizen (SC) activity typically involves criminal behavior that is generally non-violent but has led to threats and plots against Court Officials by the more extremist adherents. Below are some indicators that you have encountered a SC during your normal duties and be a signal that additional precautions against fraudulent filings and personal harm be used.

Initial Indicators of SC noticed by filings:

- Presentation to the courts of voluminous motions that contain:
 - References to UCC codes
 - References to Probate type language including estates, trusts, wills, and beneficiaries
 - Reference case law that is outdated, irrelevant, and/or taken out of context
 - Use outdated language
 - Use red ink in written statements, thumb prints, and/or signatures
- Present documents that identify the defendant as a sovereign, law enforcement officer, tribal member, or ambassador
- Sign documents with unusual signature, statements, or letters
 - Examples include "JOHN:DOE", "John.Doe.com", "Authorized Signature", "Without Prejudice UCC 1-208", "Agent", "SLS" (sovereign living soul), "TDC" (threats deception coercion)
- Request courts sign documents or respond to complicated and rambling inquires usually with a statement to the effect of "failure to reply indicates acceptance of all motions and dismissal of all charges".

When making a court appearance:

- May not want to pass into the "well" of the court.
- Claim that the court does not have jurisdiction over them
- Request to read statements that attempt to justify their sovereignty
- Ask the Judge, court officials, attorneys, and/or witnesses for identification or verification of their authority (will commonly ask for "Oath of Office" or "Delegation of Authority")
- Present papers to the courts but not want the court to retain them
- Try to convince the Jury that they have ultimate authority and should not take any directions given by the Judge
- Defendant may invite other sovereign citizens to court in an effort to disrupt, intimidate, and/or film the proceedings
- If the Judge calls for a recess to try to figure out what the sovereign citizen is talking about, the defendant may claim that the Judge has abandoned the court and claim authority to dismiss the case

Following Trial:

- Court officials may receiving threatening communication
- Fraudulent liens and claims may be filed against the Judge, witnesses, Jury, other court officials, or their families
