Resident

- ▣ “Residents, as distinguished from citizens, are aliens who are permitted to take up a permanent abode in the country. Being bound to the society by reason of their dwelling in it, they are subject to its laws so long as they remain there, and, being protected by it, they must defend it, although they do not enjoy all the rights of citizens. They have only certain privileges which the law, or custom, gives them. Permanent residents are those who have been given the right of perpetual residence. They are a sort of citizen of a less privileged character, and are subject to the society without enjoying all its advantages. Their children succeed to their status; for the right of perpetual residence given them by the State passes to their children.” The Law of Nations, Vattel, Book 1, Chapter 19, Section 213, p. 87

Summary

- ❖ Nobody said it would be easy,
but it IS POSSIBLE.

What I would do

- ▣ At common law it is not called a “marriage”, it is called holy matrimony
- ▣ I would find a preacher who would marry us without a license, or
- ▣ I would make up our own vows, and
- ▣ rent a hall, and have a sign-in sheet/book, and
- ▣ both of us would say our vows to each other in front of everybody, and,
- ▣ Make up a marriage certificate and sign it with my bride, with at least 2 witnesses, and
- ▣ Make an affidavit, and attach the copy of the certificate, and the sign-in list/book and
- ▣ Record everything as a package in the County Records
